I, _____, one of the People, as seen in the Constitution of Florida (as seen in Article 1 Section 1 of the Florida Constitution), am providing you due notice that you may respond and provide due care;

Please take notice that as one of the People, I wish to know if the following Rights be long to the People, and as Trustees in Government, you have a duty to be responsive and accountable to the people;

Florida Constitution Article XII Section 10:

Preservation of existing government.—All provisions of Articles I through IV, VII and IX through XX of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, not embraced herein which are not inconsistent with this revision shall become statutes subject to modification or repeal as are other statutes.

Constitution of the State of Florida 1885 Bill of Rights Section 2:

All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for the protection, security and benefit of the citizens, and they have the right to alter or amend the same whenever the public good may require it; but the paramount allegiance of every citizen is due to the Federal Government, and the people of this State have no power to dissolve its connection therewith.

Please take further notice that as one of the People, it is my wish, order, and demand that you answer if the following right, stated in the Virginia Constitution by our wonderful forefathers, belongs to the People as a Republican form of government:

Virginia Constitution Bill of Rights Section 3: Government Instituted for Common Benefit

That government is, or ought to be, instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security of the people, nation, or community; of all the various modes and forms of government, that is best which is capable of producing the greatest degree of happiness and safety, and is most effectually secured against the danger of maladministration; and, whenever any government shall be found inadequate or contrary to these purposes, a majority of the community hath an indubitable, inalienable, and indefeasible right to reform, alter, or abolish it, in such manner as shall be judged most conducive to the public weal.

Please take notice that the Legislature of Florida was not granted the power to deny the Constitutional Authority of the people to alter abolish or reform government in their general powers.

Please respond within 5 days if you believe the People have a right to alter, abolish, or reform government that is inadequate, in danger of maladministration, not benefiting the people, or negatively affecting the People's happiness. Please take further notice that as a trustee you are bound by granted authorities that exist in the Constitution of Florida and you should have the ability to show a granted authority for all Powers that you have. If you do not respond, then, it shall be taken as tacit

Acquiescence, and it shall be considered that you agree the People have this right and that any attempts to block this right is only done as a trespass, treason, and an attack done outside the powers of your Trust Indenture.
