Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal Notice to Agent

Comes now Affiant, _____, one of the people (as seen in Washington State Constitution Bill of Rights Article 1 Section 1). Sui Juris, in this court of record, being trustees of the People must provide due care and remember your oath which binds you. I, the Affiant, make the following statements and claims:

Job Description of the District School Board: The school board exists to oversee the activities of the school system ensuring that students may have the best possible experience and outcome. The school board exists to establish important policies and make sure they are implemented properly. Budgeting is one of the most challenging responsibilities of a school board and requires the ability to listen to the priorities and needs of staff, the community, and the student body. The board must also review student achievement data on a regular basis to evaluate the school’s effectiveness and make changes as needed.

As elected officials, you have sworn to uphold the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of Washington State. You swore that you would faithfully discharge the duties of your office according to the best of your ability.

Washington State Constitution
Article 1 Section 1

All political power is inherent in the people, and governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and are established to protect and maintain individual rights.
Affiant reminds you of the fundamental principles in the Supreme law of the land that secure my individual rights.

The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land.

Article 1 Section 11

Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the state of a chaplain for such of the state custodial, correctional, and mental institutions, or by a county's or public hospital district's hospital, health care facility, or hospice, as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony. [AMENDMENT 88, 1993 House Joint Resolution No. 4200, p 3062. Approved November 2, 1993.]

Article 1 Section 12

No law shall be passed granted to any citizen, class of citizen, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities which upon the same terms shall not equally belong to all citizens, or corporations.

Article 1 Section 30

The enumeration in this Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny others retained by the people.

Article 1 Section 32

A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is essential to the security of individual right and the perpetuity of free government.

Affiant reminds you that the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land to which all government, state and federal, is subject.

Article 9 Section 1

It is the paramount duty of the state to make ample provision for the education of all children residing within its borders, without distinction or preference on account of race, color, caste, or sex.

Article 9 Section 4

All schools maintained or supported wholly or in part by the public funds shall be forever free from sectarian control or influence.

Affiant comes as one of the People from which your power is derived. Your oath to office affirms that your main purpose is to protect and maintain my individual rights by upholding the Constitution. This includes the rights of my heritage, those in my care, my children. Affidavit is being given as notice to you who are creating or enforcing health rules or mandates. Affiant claims you are infringing on the freedoms guaranteed to me as one of the People. You are also practicing health discrimination and segregation and are depriving people of their rights under color of law.

Section 242 of Title 18 makes it a crime for a person acting under color of any law to willfully deprive a person of a right or privilege protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

Affiant claims you, as state personnel, are subject to having your actions restricted if your actions are not consistent with protecting the People's freedom. Any failure on your part to protect these rights is a breach of your trust indenture, granted by the People, and will be considered an act of maladministration, and an attack on the People you serve. Such maladministration and attack may result in censure, fines, and termination of services

Informed consent is required for investigational medical therapies. The Nuremberg Code (1947)

Affiant affirms that any rebates, intimidation, manipulation or grooming of children to participate in activities regarding a minor's health, including staying away from friends, obstruction of airway by mandating a mask while on school property or on the bus, staying at home for prolonged periods, covid testing or vaccination, without consent of the parents is unlawful. Anyone creating and adopting any such policies shall be liable, to the fullest extent of the law for every health concern arising out of the above-mentioned violations of rights and health care policies.

Affiant demands that the School Superintendent and the District School Board cease and desist immediately and in the future from any policies that mandate forced mask wearing, social distancing, covid testing and/or experimental vaccination proof as condition for free and equal participation in education, or as means to discriminate against or segregate children.

Whereas, "Title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 authorizes the Attorney General to address certain equal protection violations based on religion, among other bases, in public schools and institutions of higher education. The Educational Opportunities Section works to ensure that all persons regardless of their religion are provided equal educational opportunities." Any sectarian instruction that seeks to divide and induce division based on social standing, skin color, or ethnicity will violate the equal educational opportunities section of the Civil rights Act. It is a violation of the students' civil rights which protects "equal education opportunities."

Affiant claims that any attempt to incorporate Critical Race Theory and Equity, which is inextricably tied to CRT is a violation. These methods encourage implementation of the Equity-driven policies, practices, procedures, and resources found on the Washington State Board of Education website. Committing racial discrimination in the name of ending racial discrimination is both illogical and illegal. It goes against the exceptional principles on which our nation was founded. Implementing CRT and antiracist programming, in a way that treats individuals differently, on the basis of race, creates a racially hostile environment. You have violated the Washington State Constitution.

Any man or woman who denies these claims are true must rebut them under penalty of perjury in the form of a sworn affidavit. Any man or woman who decides to suppress this affidavit agrees to pay $15,000 and any disputes by any public officials or private actors who are bound by contract to the Washington State Constitution agrees to have these matters heard before an Arbitrator of my choice. Any man or woman denying these claims are true must rebut these claims point by point within (3) days (72 hours). Failure to respond means that by acquiescence you agree that all claims are true.

Verification
